Danny -

In deference to your hesitation to sign the GS release document, I give you these verbal guarantees:

You will have:

- A) Full Producer credit on the film "The Rise" (unpaid)
- B) guaranteed casting as lead role John Wanyk in Gray State series (paid)

You will have every opportunity to continue to collaborate, writing and producing episodes and retaining your cherished position as a co-creator of the original concept in the public eye, but I will not be able to sign you into any contracted roles until I have your signed release document. I would like to have it by December 16th, after which we would be free to discuss a future with Gray State that's more respectful to your talents as a paid professional.

Cheers

David
